Local Couples Relatives Arrive Home

International convention of Christian Women's Fellowships held on the campus at Purdue University of Lafayette, Ind., was the incentive for several weeks vacation by three local couples, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosely, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pietzschke.

Mr. and Mrs. Mosely and Mrs. Thompson drove to Lafayette visiting with relatives along the way. Mr. and Mrs. Pietzschke went to St. Louis, Mo. to spend a month with relatives. After the three women had attended the convention, Mr. and Mrs. Mosely went on to the east coast, going to Washington, D.C., attending the Jamestown celebration and from there north to New York and all through the New England states. They visited Niagara Falls and crossed the northern part of the continent en route home. In New York, Mr. and Mrs. Mosley visited the American Field Service headquarters.

Mrs. Thompson left Lafayette for Galena, Kans., to spend a month with her mother. She was joined there by Mr. Thompson.

Relatives Return to Homes Here

The Jones families have returned home following their vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones, 2118 Martina Ave., took their 10-day holiday with a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes Hunt, and daughter, Shelle, of Santa Ana. The group took in San Francisco, Sacramento and Lake Tahoe, before returning home.

Meanwhile, the Joneses son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jones and children, Gordie and Diane, all of 2054 Reynosa Dr., were vacationing at Catalina Island and Calimesa. While at Calimesa, they were joined by neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sharon and daughter, Susan, and Ted Davidson, of Toronto, Canada, a nephew of the Sharons.

The Gordon Jones family arrived home a day before the other relatives and staged a homecoming dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones and the Hunts, as a finale to all their vacations.

AT CRESTLINE

Mrs. B. T. Whitney and daughter, Margo, will arrive home tomorrow from a week's vacation at Crestline.

'Hard Times' Party Staged By Art Club

An unusual party was held at the home of Mrs. Leah Arterburn in Lomita Friday evening with Mrs. Leila Everly co-hostess when the Arts and Crafts Club members arrived for dinner. Each guest had been instructed to dress for a "hard times" party. As each person arrived dressed in really "hard times" clothes, all had a good laugh and anxiously awaited the arrival of the next guest. Mrs. Helen Miller won first prize and Mrs. Mary McDonald, second prize.

A delicious barbecue dinner was enjoyed after which the regular business meeting was conducted by the president, Vivian Cook. All enjoyed the lovely garden at the Arterburn home, especially the prize fuchsia hanging plants. After the meeting several projects were enjoyed. Some members made poodles, using yarn and wash cloths; others used the knitting machines and made yarn slippers, while others worked on needlepoint and tatting.

Those present were Cora Bohrer, Helen Carpenter, Vivian Cook, Ruth Hardin, Ruth Kilgore, Mary McDonald, Emily Middleton, Helen Miller, Ethyl Pevery, Leah Arterburn and Leila Everly, co-hostess, and Betty Thomas, a guest.

The next meeting will be held in the patio at the home of Vivian Cook on Aug. 16.

L. G. Fetherolfs Mark 50th Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Fetherolf, 2405 Torrance Blvd., who completed fifty golden years of married life last week were especially honored at two nuptial masses, both celebrated on their anniversary date, July 24. A nuptial mass for the couple was said at the Nativity Catholic Church by Rev. Thomas Glynn, who administered the special papal blessing from Rome, a gift from a cousin Msgr. Bissen, who on the same day celebrated a mass at the St. Joseph Church in Earling, Iowa, Mrs. Fetherolf's birthplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Fetherolf were married on July 24, 1907 at the old Plaza church in Los Angeles. Last Saturday afternoon, the Torrance YWCA was the scene of an elaborate reception honoring the couple. A pink and gold color theme was effectively used in decorating. A four-tiered wedding cake centered the table. It was served with dainty sandwiches, punch and coffee. Reception hours were from 2 until 5 in the afternoon and from 7 until 9 in the evening.

Over 80 guests, among whom were old friends and several school friends, were present to offer felicitations. With the couple, also, were their son and daughter, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Attending were their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Fetherolf of Torrance; a daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dan G. Cook and three children, Timothy, Danny and Ronald Cook, of Torrance; a grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Fetherolf and children, Susan Lynn and Brian Donald, of Rosemead.

Making the occasion complete was the arrival of seven cousins from Iowa, who came for the nuptial mass and the reception. They were Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bissen, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bissen, Mr. and Mrs. John Bissen and Mrs. Lena Jacoby.

Other relatives here for the reception were Mrs. Fetherolf's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walker of Burbank; a nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Walker, Glendale; a sister, Mrs. Anna Rhodes of Los Angeles; a nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes and daughter of Los Angeles.

Others were a niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Seider and three children, Ray, Thomas and Janet of North Hollywood. A gift was received from another nephew, Charles Walker of North Hollywood, who was unable to be present.

Among the array of gifts was a huge bouquet from the Eagles Lodge 935 of Redondo Beach. Mr. Fetherolf has been an Eagle for 45 years.

The anniversary celebrants have lived in Torrance for the past 12 years. Mr. Fetherolf was in the lumber business in Los Angeles for 20 years before moving to Redondo Beach and then to Torrance. He was retired from the National Supply Co. in 1952.

Mrs. Fetherolf is active in the local Catholic Church where she is a member of the Altar society.
